

First semester of EFE studies is about to be completed. What are the impressions of students who started their higher education on October 1st, 2009 ? How do they evaluate that time spent at the university ?

The entire article may be found here .